Important change on the international scene by the following organizations

- World Dance Council {W.D.C.} Professionnel
- Conseil Canadian en Danse et Danse Sportive {C.C.D.D.S.}

- International Dance Sport Federation. {I.D.S.F.} Amateur.
- Canadian Amateur Dancers Association. {C.A.D.A.}
- Canadian Dancesport Federation {C.D.F.}

Recently the C.D.F. affiliated parent organization the, International Professional Dance Sport Council {I.P.D.S.C.} has been dissolved with the Two founding members resigning. This leaves the C.D.F. with no current World International parent organization. C.D.F. now stands alone. The I.P.D.S.C. was loosely affiliated with the I.D.S.F. (See IDSF web site)

Also, as a result of the I.P.D.S.C. dissolution, the I.D.S.F. has now recently formed a Professional Division. The I.D.S.F. has also informed Professionals that they may join and register with their I.D.S.F. Member Country Organization. In Canada this is Canadian Amateur Dancers Association or {C.A.D.A.} with Amateur President, Sandy Britain.

The W.D.C. has always and still continues to represent the worlds top Professional Competitors and Adjudicators. Almost all of the former greats which you know in DanceSport continue to judge and support the W.D.C. and members C.D.D.S.C in Canada, and the N.D.C.A. in the U.S.A.

In December 2009, the W.D.C. also held its 2nd Open to the World Amateur Championships in Disney Land, Paris. The 1st year was a great success, and 2009 was an even greater success, with all ages catered for. Judged by the world's best qualified adjudicators and coaches. All of which were former champions themselves. These Championships are truly Open Championships, and free of any restrictions or bans, and are open for ANYONE to compete. You could send competitors yourself to compete in these Championships. There is no restriction other than the age categories. (See WDC web site)

The C.D.D.S.C. also accepts the W.D.C. Open Market Policy free from Bans and Threats. A right we should all share in, and be apart of.

Did you know that recently in Three Rivers Quebec that the C.D.D.S.C. in September sanctioned the biggest Dancesport Competition in Canada? With some of the biggest names in Dancesport in the world in attendance! This title was the "World Professional Ten Dance Championship". These Championships also included the Canadian Open and Closed Professional Standard, Latin, Smooth and Rhythm Championships. Also, the CDDSC Canadian Open Standard and Latin Championships were held into this event. There were some 7,000 people in attendance at these Championships spectating. A great achievement by Productions Mondial Dance the promoters.

The C.D.D.S.C. is the only recognized Professional dance organization in Canada recognized and linked to the W.D.C.
